1. The 2023 end of year reports (AGM) that was held on Saturday 24th February, 2024 resolved among others the following;

Observed a minute of silence for 15 of our departed members who went ahead of us in the period under review. Appreciate all the members/ sections / committees and singing groups for their contributions and involvement in church activities

Inform the congregation that the two loans that the congregation had contracted with access bank were fully paid off in 2023.

Noted with concern that some members have not been attending church services. All members are encouraged to attend weekly Sunday services in order to enhance their spiritual lives.

To appreciate the following sections that performed well in giving tithes from Jan-Dec 2023;
